

Disruption Model

Local Farm

Working with local farms, YES! collects fruits and vegetables that would otherwise go to waste (mostly due to cosmetic reasons) and bring them to our YES! Shop for repurposing.

Rehab

Adults transitioning out of rehab are invited to participate in our 15-week Culinary Training Program at YES!

Prison

Adults transitioning out of prison are invited to participate in our 15-week Culinary Training Program at YES!

Shelters

Adults within shelter are invited to participate in our 15-week Culinary Training Program at YES!

Social Service Agency

Fresh, healthy meals are prepared and delivered due to the work of our Culinary Training Program students and volunteers.

YES!

YORK EMPOWERMENT SHOP

15-week Culinary Training Program taught by certified culinary instructors and guest chefs.

Food Spots

Restaurants, catering services, hotels, markets and food banks donate food that would otherwise go to waste (unused portions, cosmetic issues, extra orders) and bring them to our YES! Shop for repurposing.

Restaurant

YES! Trainees are paired with industry pros for internships while in the YES Program, and receive food handling certificates upon completion, PLUS job placement.
